

Incubating a Carpentry

Belinda Weaver

Tim Dennis

Chris Erdmann

Mark Laufersweiler

Requirements

- A raison d'être
- Mission and vision
- Lessons – and what is a lesson?
- What is a workshop?
- Who is an Instructor?
- Code of Conduct
- Governance

Library Carpentry

- 2015 – first workshop
 - Shell, git, regex, data structures, OpenRefine
- 2016
 - first Australian workshop
 - First sprint – 20 people, six countries – new SQL and python lessons
- 2017
 - Second sprint – 107 people, seven countries
 - Webscraping lesson
 - NSLA capital cities roadshow in Australia, MIT + other workshops, Portland instructor training for librarians

Library Carpentry

- 2018
 - Governance group established <http://librarycarpentry.org/#team>
 - Third sprint – new website <http://librarycarpentry.org/>
 - New lesson outlines for
 - Digital preservation
 - FAIR training (see pad for links: <http://pad.software-carpentry.org/lc-sprint-2018>)
- plus LOTS of updates to git, sql, and other lessons
- IMLS grant – two years – develop LC – lessons, workshops, community
 - Appointment of Chris Erdmann to the role